Senior Distinction Day

Gayle plots her points.

The frustrations of directing an orchestra.

Karen searches for her lesson plan.

Whew! I talked myself out of that one.

Gary and Mike attempt their next song.

Time out for Isabel and Mary.

Becky and Lisa begin their day with a smile.

Next, Lets make paper dolls.

Betty Crocker at her best.

Senior Banquet

Which one uses Love's Baby Soft, Ron?

"John, what are you grinning about?"

"Let's go to the disco!"

Everybody's in such a great mood.

"Michele, where's your Moose?"

The Blues Brothers.

Lisa says, "What was your name again?"

Hey, Lisa, the camera's upside down.

Two roses among the thorns.

"Tommy, why so serious?"

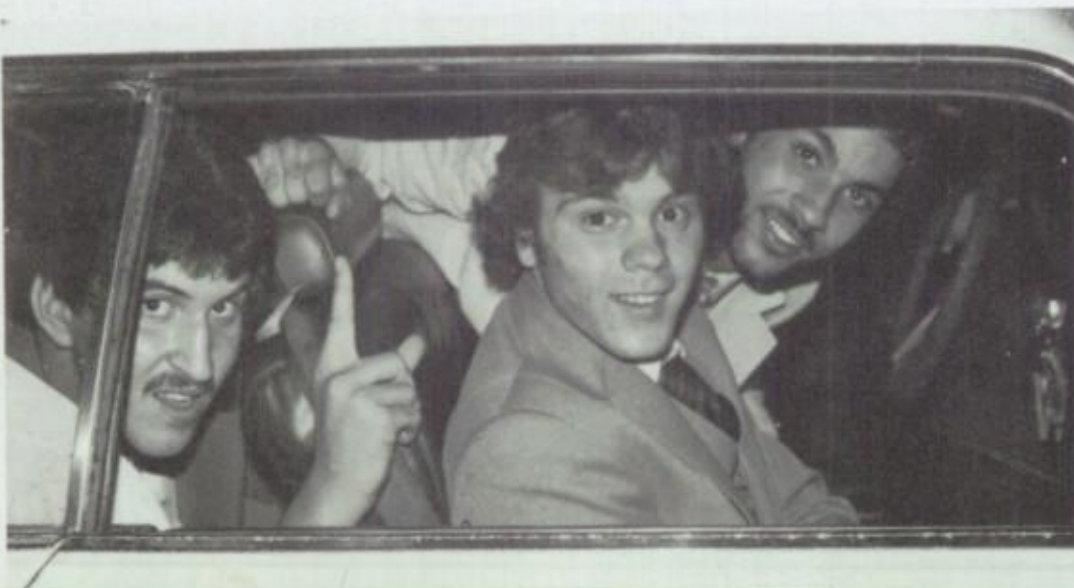

"I'm with her!"

"Need a lift?"

"I Can't believe it!"

Time Out For Senior Tidbits-

Albert struggles up the stairs.

Want some dessert?

Drew, I just said that I liked your haircut!

Did you see that?

Are you serious?

We don't need no education.

One step closer and you're dead!

Joe, Please fill it to the top.

May I take your order?

C'mon I'll admit it was a bad joke.

I've got a terrible headache.

Rafael receives his daily blood transfusion.

The newest dance at A.K.

Ray's teaching methods are unique.

Paul at his best!

John demonstrates his musical ability

I've got the beat.

The teacher of tomorrow

Kim has a winning smile.

Seniors busily work on their research papers.

Pat begins reading the book the day of the test.

Hey, Mike, you are looking in the wrong direction!

Randy "checks out" Karen's legs.

The Black Bo Derek

Paul, please put out the cigar!"

The dream couple

C'mon Dale, I've waited long enough.

Aureau speaks out!

Jeff, get that dirty look off your face!

A vision of innocence.

We're no. 1

Joe is a champion.

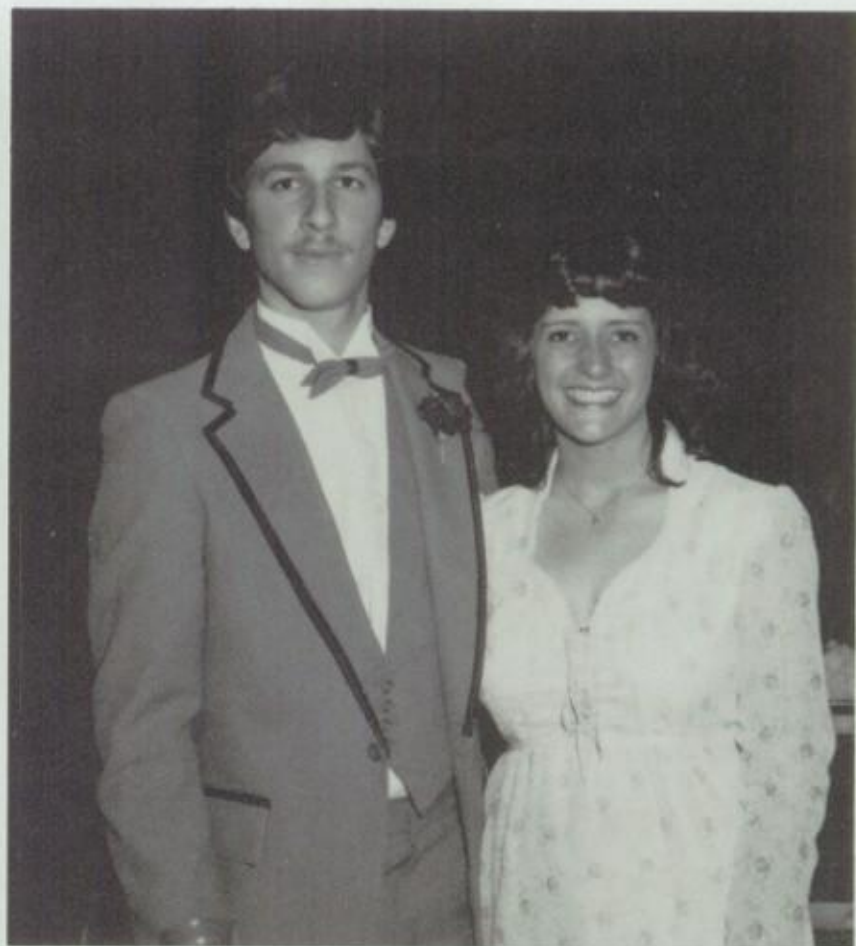

“We’ve Got Tonight”

John and Roland give Gary and Lisa some helpful hints . .

The “Ultra Bright” smiles.

Kathy and Dave enjoying it all.

Thanks, handsome.

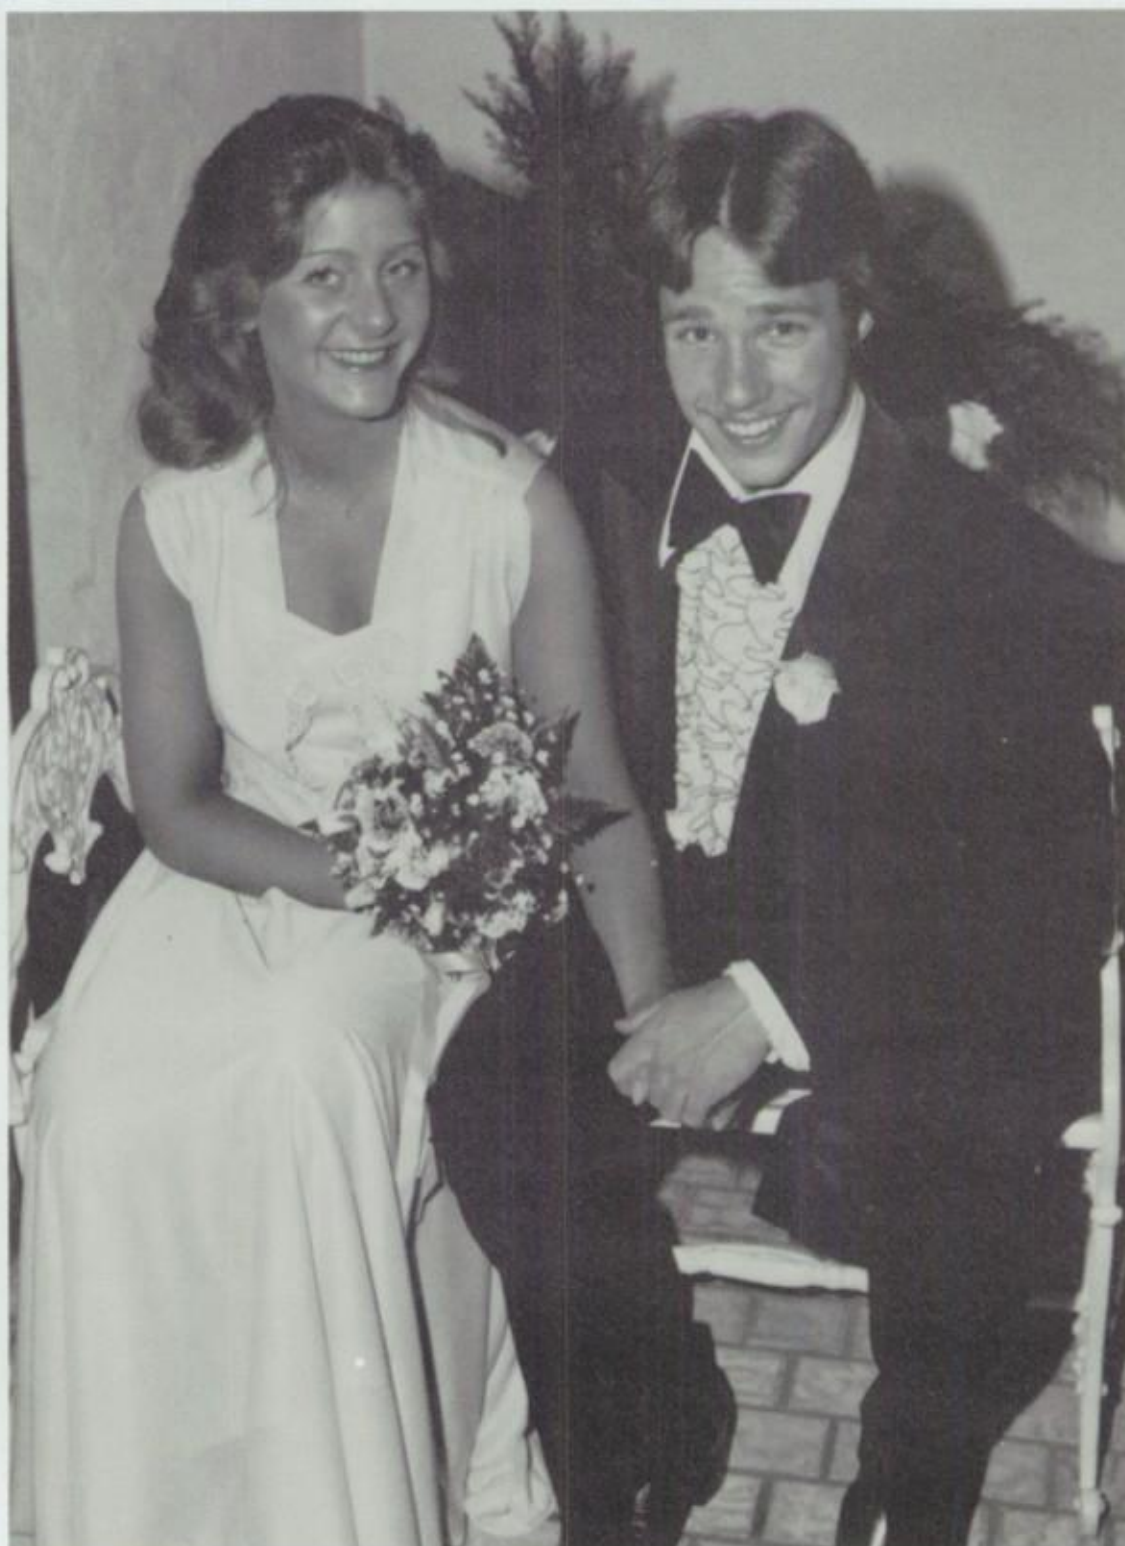

The ladies in blue.

Take the picture.

Fred, that is not your date?

What a charming couple.

"You didn't eat your fruit cocktail!"

"We're ready to dance the night away."

"Isn't that grape drink good?"

"Ginger Rogers and Fred Astair, look out."

"Come on, Christa, smile."

You smile nice, but let's see you dance.

"Can we have a waiter at this table?"

"Amy, who's your cute date?"

Tina, don't look so thrilled.

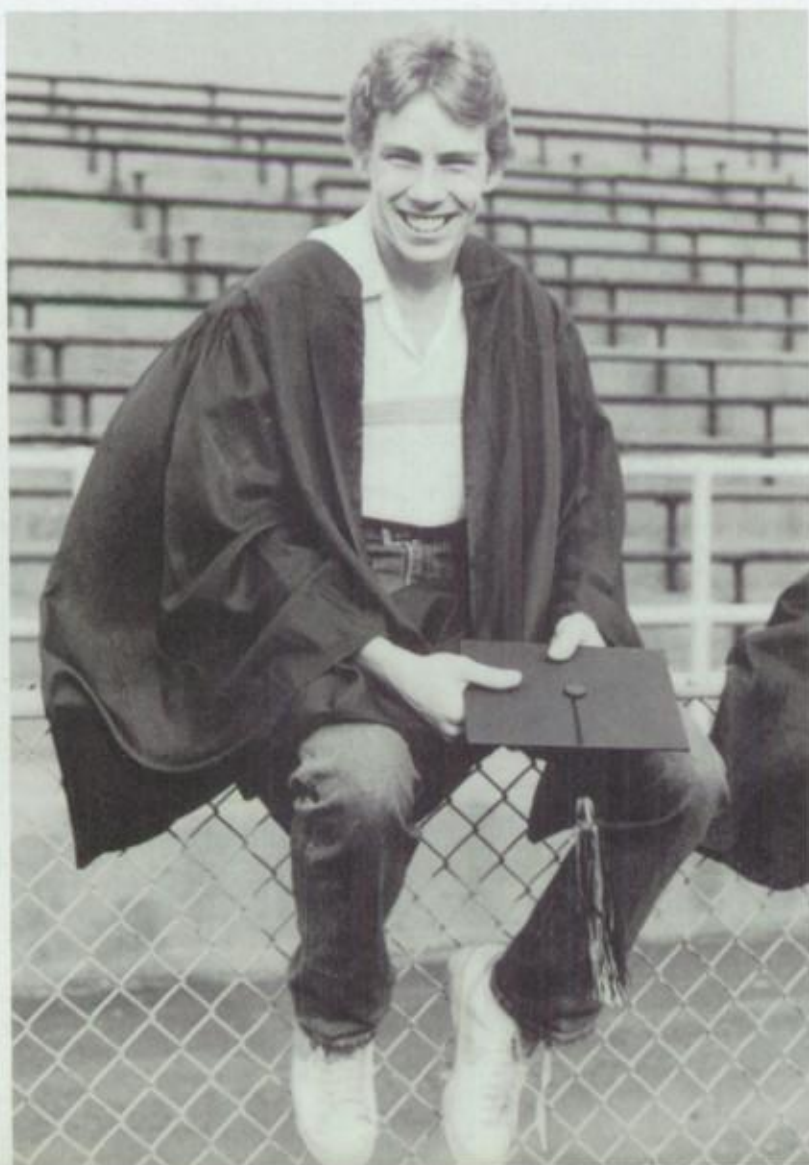

"The Wild And Crazy Class Of 1981"

Angela shows off her top.

Jim always wears his Nikes.

Squeeze in there, Kathy.

Best friends trade best wishes.

Pat relaxes before the big moment.

"I'm glad it's almost over."

"Don't cry, Lisa."

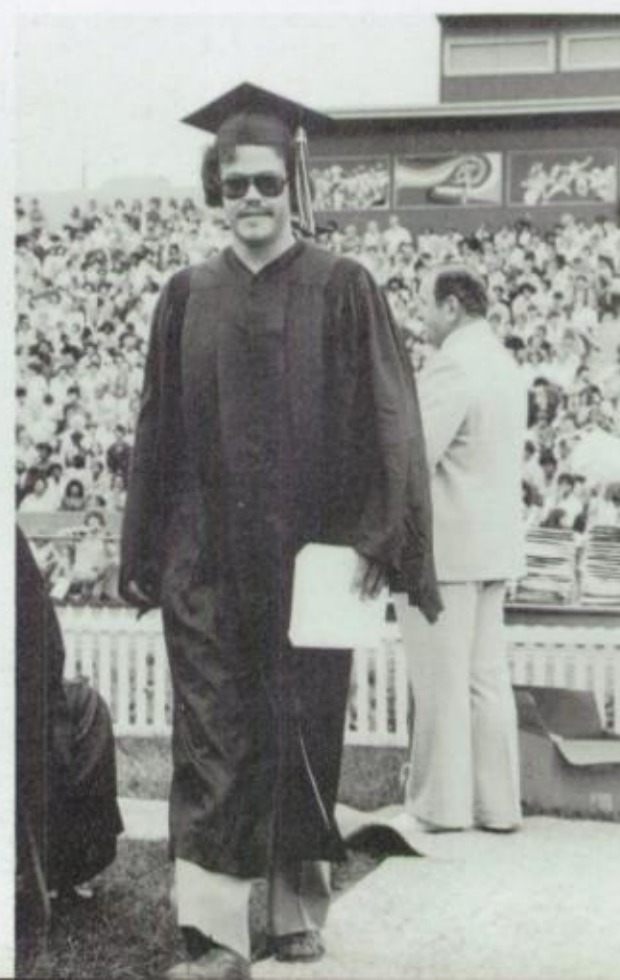

"Fancy meeting you here."

Dave shows Jackie the way.

"Where's mom sitting?"

Tim gives a sigh of relief.

"All right, guys, quit clowning around."

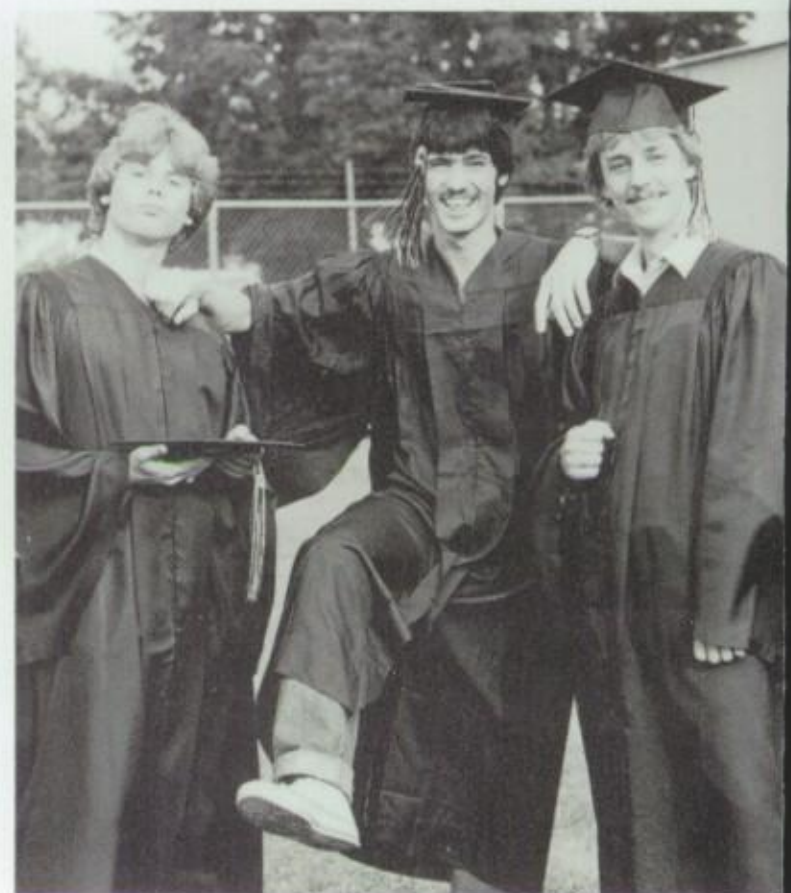

"It was nothing"

Jenny ponders past memories of school.

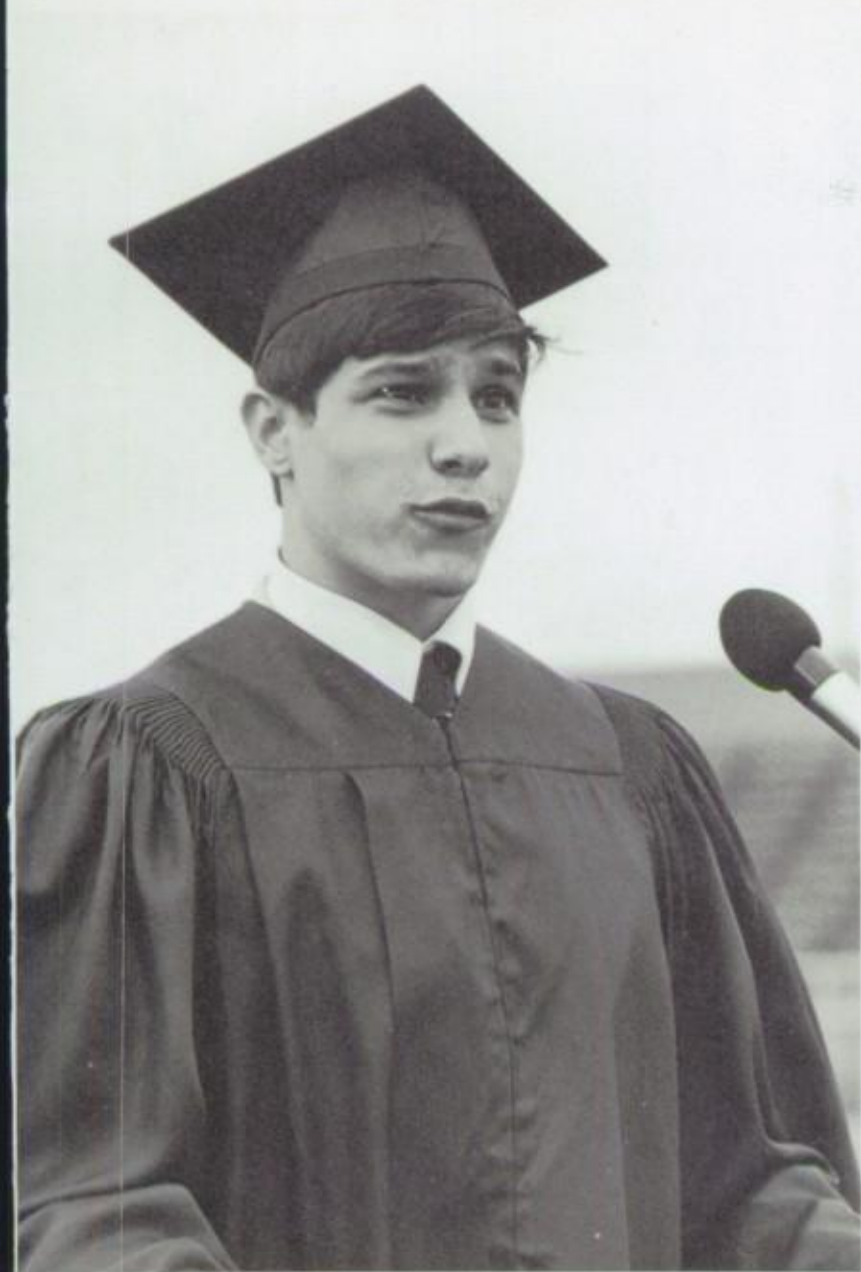

One of the last times together . .

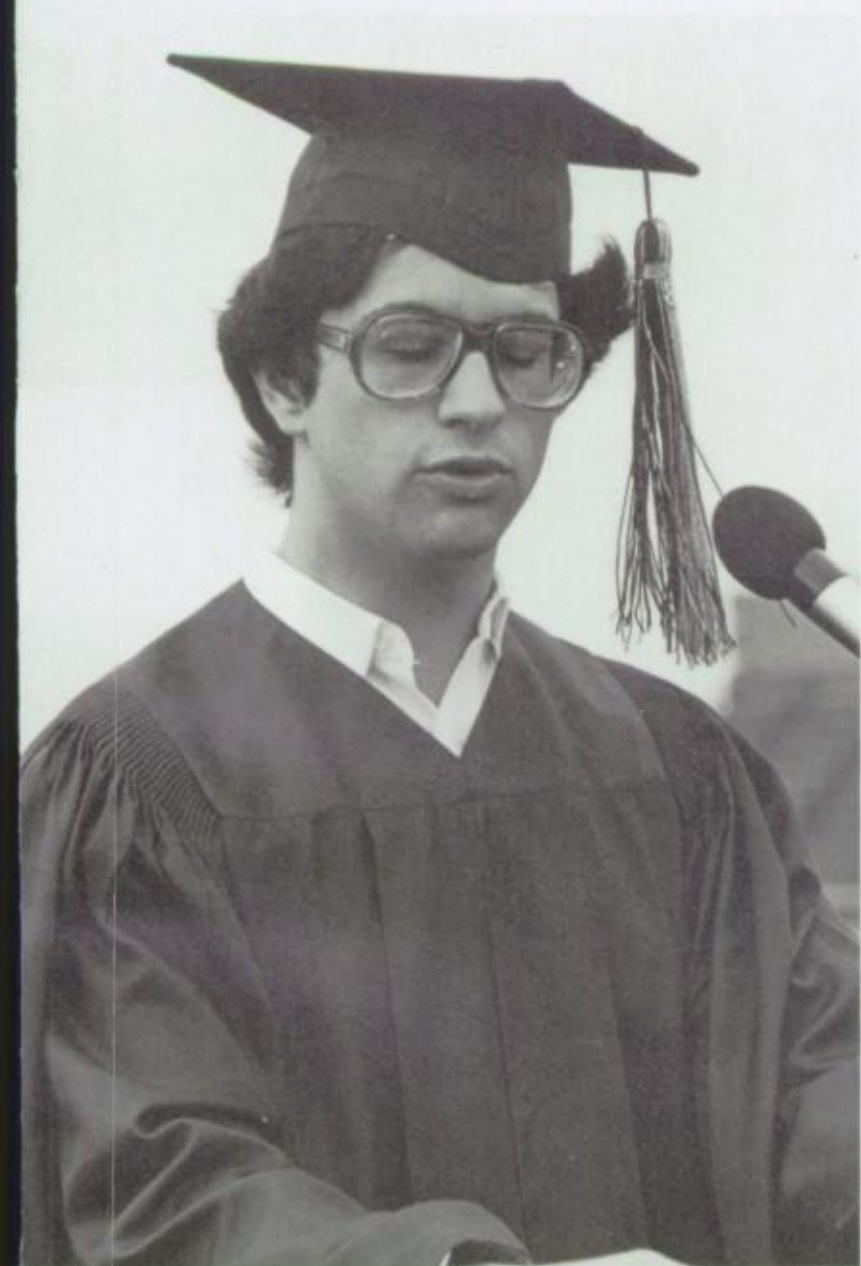

Stepping up in the world.

"Hail to our colors, Gold and Blue . . ."

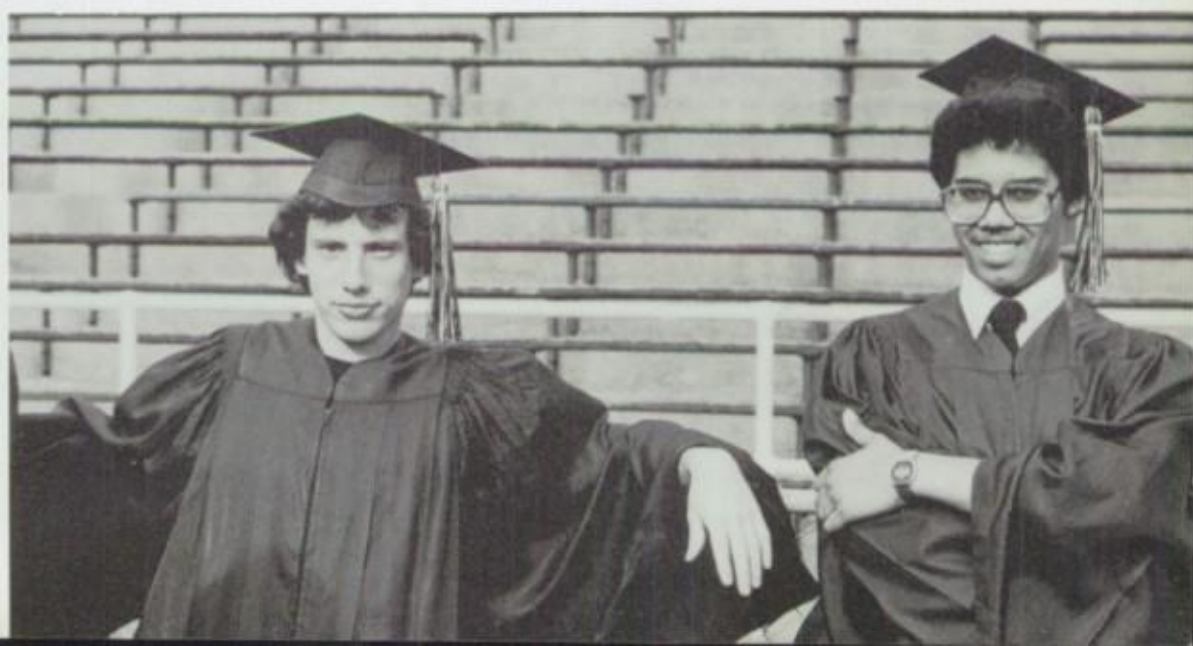

Words for the future given by Dennis Zemanek, Michele Scislowski, and John Palagyi.

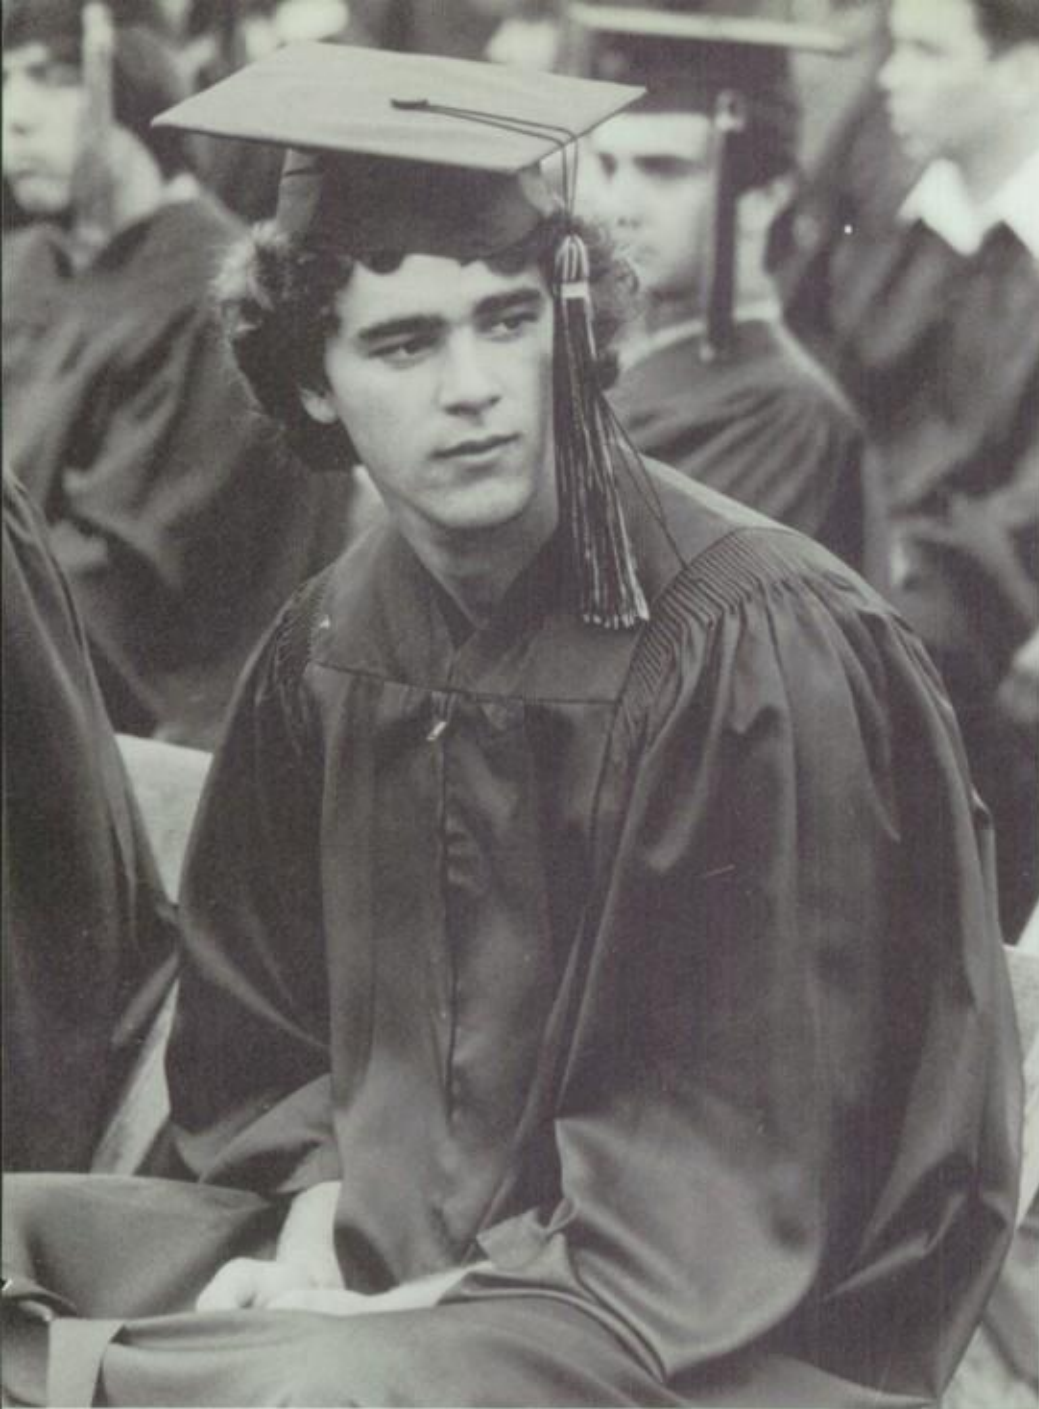

"Thanks, I needed that."

"Hi, I'm Joe Cool."

Matt eyes a young lady in the audience.

She came from another country to graduate from King.

Here they come.

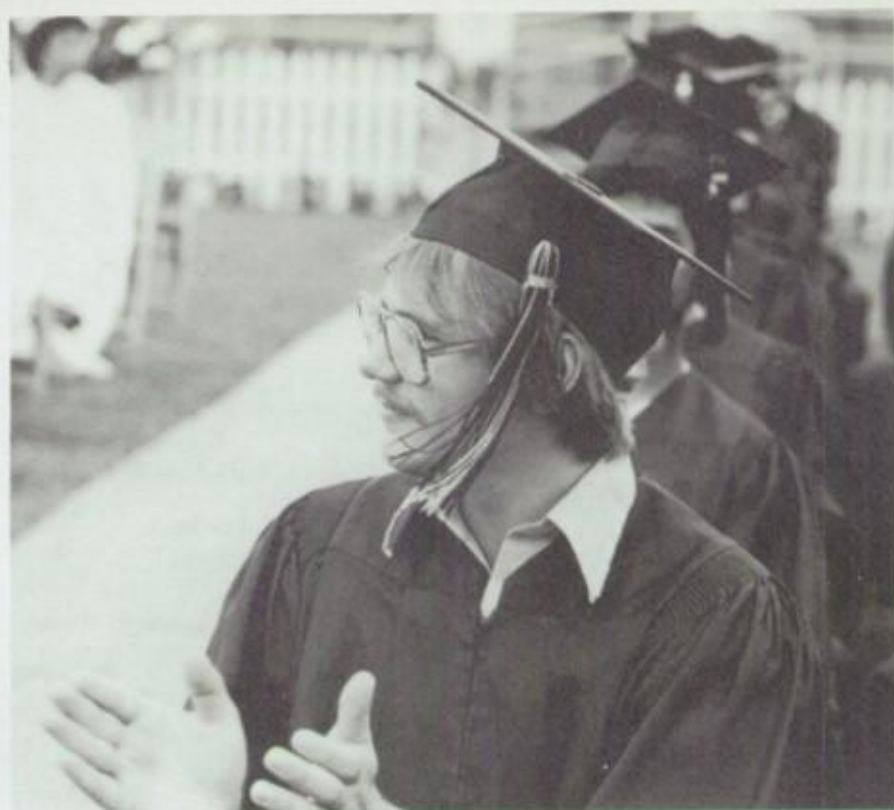

"Nothing to this."

It only took thirteen years.

"I've got legs."

"Higher, Mildred, higher."

Smile; it's not that bad.

Put your left hand in; take your left hand out . . .

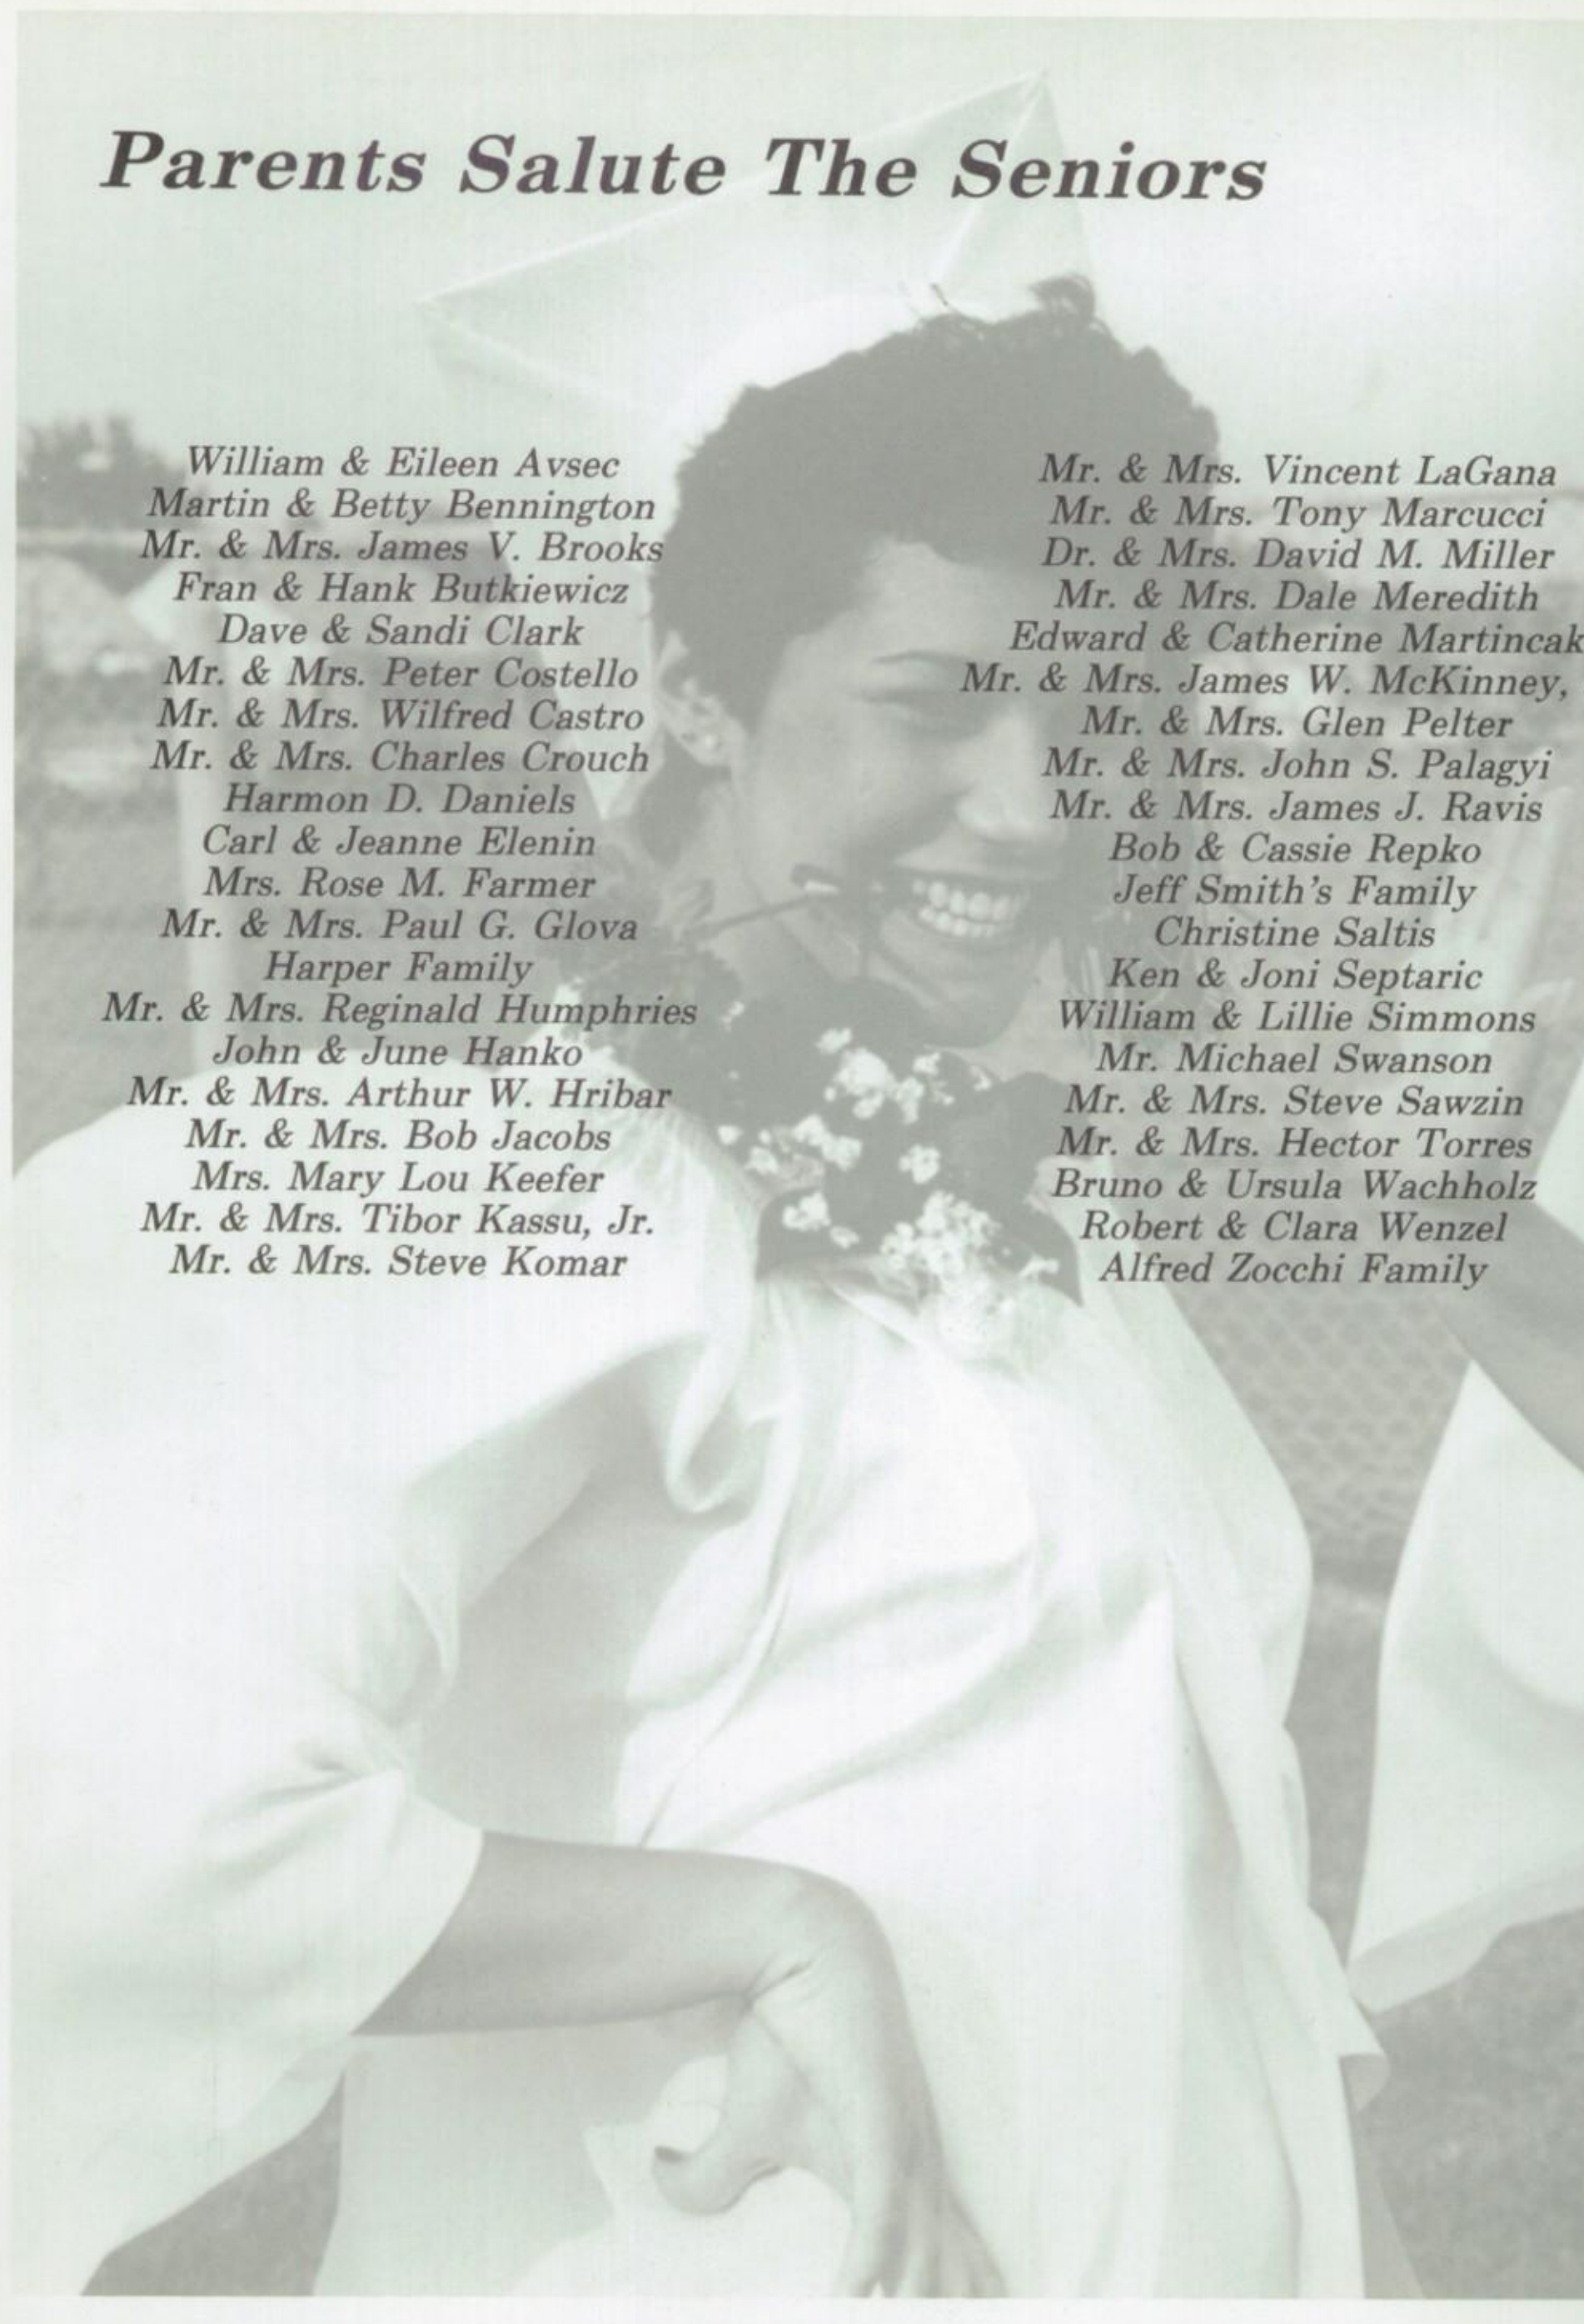

"Can you believe they let us graduate."

The last act of the "Class of 81".

This year, the Charleston Career Center offers many new classes, including Medical/Legal Secretary, Supermarket Specialist, and Drafting, in addition to the old standbys, Clerical and Steno. The student who takes one of these classes gets experience that he otherwise might not (at least, not until he graduates), and will be prepared to face the world of work the very day after graduation, and often sooner.

The students involved like the specialized training and the small class size. One student says, "It's more personal than a large high school. If you need help, just about anyone will help you. It's a very friendly atmosphere."

The classes offered at the Charleston Career Center are: Clerical, Steno, Supermarket Specialist, Child Care, Drafting, Medical/Legal Secretary, and Cooperative Office Education (C.O.E). Each class prepares you for a career in a different field. Many students find that the classes offered to them at the Center give them the experience they need without making them wait until after they graduate to go to a two- or four-year college. At the Charleston Career Center they get a headstart.

We'll Get 'Em Next Time

The 1980-81 season for the Admirals finished with a record of 2-8. The Admirals started out with 4 defeats but reversed that with 2 back-to-back wins over Elyria, 15-7, and Mansfield, 28-15. Larry Ross, a second-team all-Buckeye Conference selection, was the league's back of the week in the win over Elyria.

Ross rushed for 627 yards on 113 carries and scored 58 points. He was voted the Offensive Player of the Year, as well as the Most Valuable Player by his teammates. Along with Ross, Dennis Zemanek earned the Gary Krause Memorial Award as the team's outstanding scholar-athlete-citizen.

The junior varsity team, coached by Barry Buck and John Wolfe closed the season with five straight wins after dropping its first three games. The freshman team, coached by Jim Uszynski and John Pavlinda, finished with a 2-4-1 record.

This year's Varsity and J.V. Volleyball teams finished with a 12 - 6 record and 11 - 2 record, respectively. Varsity, coached by Mrs. Lewandowski, finished second in the Buckeye Conference. This was the first time the lady spikers have finished so respectably.

J.V., coached by first year Coach Stan Lewandowski, ended the season with only two losses. Coach Lewandowski said, "I was very fortunate to have the opportunity to work with the girls. I am looking forward to working with them again next year."

Congratulations to both Varsity and J.V. spikers on an excellent season.

For the AK Varsity Cheerleaders, the year was more devastating physically than it had been for the football and basketball players!

As all squads, they began with six girls; however, the varsity was quickly diminished to four. An injury, late in the season to Kim Jurczynski, reduced the active squad to only three members.

But this did not dampen the spirit at King. The three remaining cheerleaders used their ability and creativity to continue to lead the school spirit.

The JV's and the rest AK would like to thank you, VARSITY, for your never-ending endurance.

An inexperienced, but very talented girls team completed a most successful 1980 - 81 season. The 16-8 record included an eighth straight City Championship, the Buckeye East Championship, the Sectional Championship and a Second place finish in the District.

Leading the way were seniors Gwen Harris, Becky Zaebst, Carmen Morales, & Lisa Watson. Gwen played well all year including an A.K. career record 81 games played and capped the season by leading the West to a victory in the Lorain County All-Star game. Becky was the teams outstanding defensive player, while Carmen capped a fine season with a game winning shot at the buzzer in Elyria. Lisa played the point position very well and helped during the teams tournament success.

Overall 1980-81 was a great season at A.K. The seniors provided the leadership and inspiration to help provide goals for future teams to match. Good Luck to all seniors and may the 1981-82 team do even better.

Judy wants the ball.

Congratulations Ellen on a good season.

Trapped!

John goes for a long shot.

The Varsity Cagers finished the season with a 13-8 record. The season ended with a loss to Medina in AAA Tournament play. The Admirals were lead by Seniors Tracy Suttles and John Rositano.

Suttles received the Al McConihe Most Valuable Player Award. He lead the team in field goal percentage, assists, and also serving as co-captain. He was selected as team All-Buckeye Conference and All-Lorain County Selection. He also received honorable mention All-Ohio honors.

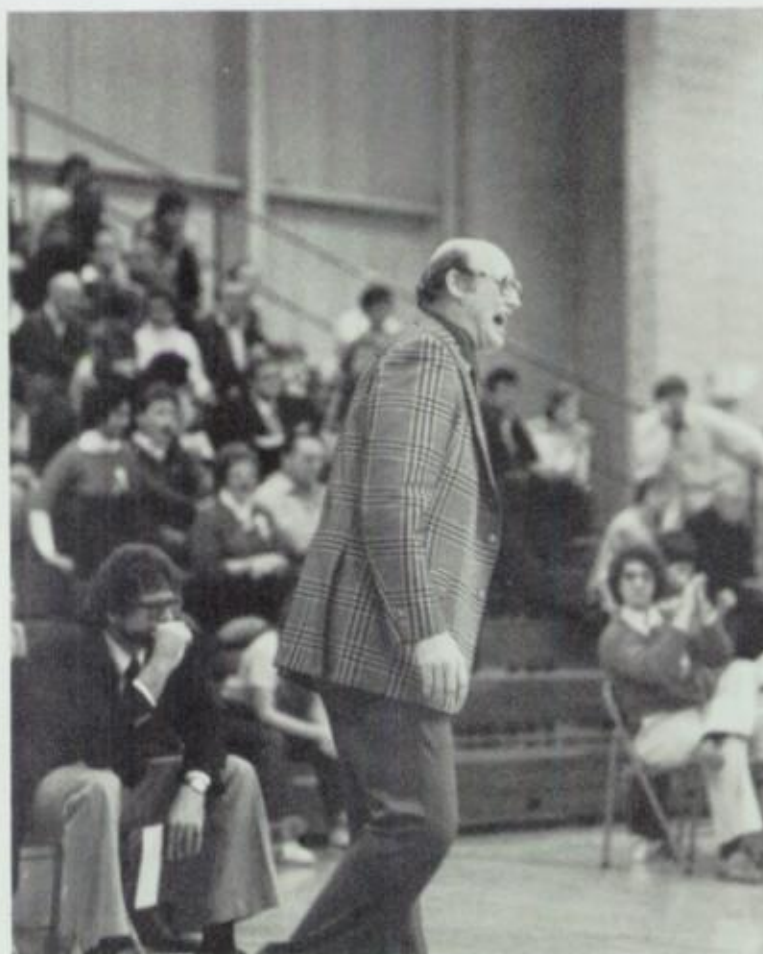

John Rositano, who was the conference leader with a 90 percent free-throw shooting, received the Craig Demyan Memorial Award.

Mike Walton, the team's top rebounder, received the Coaches' Award. Mike Jackson received the Most Improved Award.

The J.V.'s coached by Al Haschak, ended the season with a 7-13 record. The freshman ended the season with a 15-2 record. The Frosh team, coached by Bob Braskich, won first place in tournament action.

The girl Trackers finished The season with an impressive 9-3 dual record. They finished the season 3rd in the City Meet. The three losses came from Amherst, N. Ridgeville, and Elyria.

During the season, many school records were set. Freshman Aliceson Humphries set records in the shot and discus. She was also City Champ and District qualifier in the shot. The team of Lynne Simmons, Mary Saltis, Lisa Cassidy, and Shelley McCoy set a school record in the 3200 relay.

In addition to setting school records, the girl Trackers qualified some for the district. Pam Hill was a district qualifier in the hurdles as was the team of Kellie Harper, Lisa Watson, Pam Hill, and Gwen Harris in the 400 and 800 relays. Gwen Harris was also the City Champ and the Lorain County Relay Champ in the long jump. Congratulations to the girl Trackers on a fine season.

The 1981 track season finished with the Admirals having an incredible 14-0 dual record. The Admirals were City, District, Sectional, and Buckeye Champions.

This season saw School records being smashed. Some records were set by the following: Junior Doug Molnar set a record in the 800 m run with a time of 1.53.6. Walter Taylor set a record in the 100 m. run with a time of 10.7. In the relays, the team of Lloyd Jackson, Doug Molnar, Gerry Dunlap, and Roger Smith set a school record in the 1600 m. In the 400 m. relay, the team of Walter Taylor, Derrick Nix, Gerry Dunlap, and Roger Smith set a record with a time of 43.1.

John Mincy and Doug Molnar qualified for the state meet. Mincy placed 14th in the long jump but Molnar placed 2nd in the 800 m. run. It was the first time Molnar had not taken first. Congratulations to the track team on a fantastic season.

Anything Goes

Anything Goes* is a tuneful ocean crossing on the SS American, with the lives of a diverse cross-section of passengers and crew members constantly intertwining.

Ladies man Billy Crocker comes to the ship to deliver some papers to Elisha J. Whitney, his boss on Wall Street, who is sailing to England. While there he discovers the love of his life, Hope Harcourt (chaperoned by her snobbish, hen-pecking mother), is sailing with her fiancé, the stuffy Sir Evelyn Oakleigh.

Billy also meets up with an old friend, evangelist-turned-nightclub singer Reno Sweeney and her chorus girls, the Angels — Purity, Chastity, Charity and Virtue.

After bumping into Hope, Billy decides to risk his job and stow away in order to win Hope's heart. Before he can, he runs into Public Enemy No. 13, who offers him refuge when Public Enemy No. 1 doesn't show up for his ticket.

The comedy and musical mayhem starts with the myriad of shipboard disguises cause unusual mistaken identities.

Like all 1930's musicals, the finale is a happy one and the right boy ends up with the right girl.

Hey, Sailors, ship in port?

This is a good place for a pickup.

The Admiral King stageband, called the Kingsmen, consists of 25 members. This year, the stageband performed at the home basketball games. Members were given a chance to display their musical abilities by soloing at these games. Members also displayed their musical talent at the spring stageband concert. Under the guidance of director Luma Spruill, the Kingsmen travelled to Gettysburg to perform, as part of the annual stageband trip.

The Admiral King Orchestra enjoyed another fine year of musical success. Directed by Doctor David Miller, the orchestra held two concerts throughout the year. In the winter, they held their annual Christmas Candy Concert. Later in the year, the orchestra held a spring concert. Both concerts were well attended and enjoyed by all.

The orchestra also played at the National Honor Society ceremony, and they provided the musical accompaniment for the operetta. In addition to this, the orchestra visited various elementary schools to entertain the students.

You're Someone Special and a class ring shows it!

Pride is the catalyst for human achievement...the mover of minds, of muscles and most of all hearts. Your class ring is more than a mere piece of jewelry. A class ring shows Pride.

Your class ring identifies you with your school and your class for all to see. It carries with it much sentimental value and will help you preserve special memories forever.

The Touch-Call phone from Centel.
It's the modern, practical, convenient way to put the whole world at your fingertips.
And the sounds that come forth at the touch of a button—they're music to your ears.
Of course, there are other good reasons for having Touch-Call service. For one thing, it's easier than dialing when you want to reach someone fast.
And your friends and family will be impressed by your obvious good taste.
